Tucked away on a quaint, private, little street is a special oasis that few people know of called Barnes Drive. Steps away from a fabulous New York commute, this home just might be that warm and welcoming refuge you've been looking for. There's nothing cookie-cutter about this house – unique floor plan with vaulted ceiling, open living room/dining room, brick gas fireplace, and built-in bookcases all help to make it special. It's light and bright throughout. Bring your energy and a little imagination and make this solid home in this wonderful enclave yours.
